

Human Resources has continued communication and advertisement with academic, labor-related institutions and organizations to augment standard recruitment practice. The commitment and dedication of employees during this time of the pandemic and the shortage of staffing continues to be a testament to the outstanding workforce culture at Stanislaus Regional Housing Authority. Since February 1, 2022, Stanislaus Regional Housing Authority has received approximately thirty-eight (38) employment applications from interested candidates.

Promotions:

Tyler Vitale, former Maintenance Worker I, has recently been promoted to Area Maintenance Worker. Tyler is a member of the Facilities Division and will continue reporting to Facilities Division Manager Mary Ramirez.

Jason Smith, a former Area Maintenance Worker, has recently been promoted to On-Site Maintenance Supervisor (Westley) following the retirement of Scott Greensfelder. Jason is a member of the Facilities Division and will continue reporting to Facilities Division Manager Mary Ramirez.

Recently Hired:

- Chris Ewing, Area Maintenance Worker – Landscape
- Rigo Davalos – Area Maintenance Worker
- Michelle Fry – Eligibility Specialist I
- Alyssa McCoy-Gaines – Family Self-Sufficiency Coordinator
- Emanuel Valencia – Maintenance Worker I

Upcoming Job Fair:

Human Resources participated in a Job Fair on March 2, 2022, hosted by California State University, Stanislaus. Nineteen (19) individuals RSVP'd for the Authority's scheduled appointment time via Zoom where they were able to be introduced to the various positions the Authority is looking to fill, where and how to apply, as well as ask questions.

The Authority will be hosting its 4th Virtual Job Fair in April and is optimistic additional qualified candidates will be submitting employment applications. Below is a list of Stanislaus Regional Housing Authority's current vacancies:

Accountant	Area Maintenance Worker
Eligibility Specialist I/II	HQS Inspector
HQS Inspections Manager/Landlord Outreach Coordinator	Maintenance Worker I/II
Office Assistant	Senior General Ledger Clerk
Part-Time Maintenance Worker Palm Valley

As employment applications are received, screening, testing, and/or Oral Board Interviews are conducted in a continuous manner.

PREPARED BY: Dawn Bonsu, Director of Business Operations