

Human Resources has continued communication and advertisement with academic, labor-related institutions and organizations to augment standard recruitment practice. The commitment and dedication of employees during this time of the pandemic and the shortage of staffing continues to be a testament to the outstanding workforce culture at Stanislaus Regional Housing Authority.

Current Extended Conditional Offers of Employment:

One (1) Candidate: Eligibility Specialists I/II

Upcoming Job Fair:

Human Resources will be participating in the Ceres Adult Education Job Fair on May 19, 2022, hosted by Ceres Unified School District Adult Education.

Below is a list of Stanislaus Regional Housing Authority’s current vacancies:

Accountant	Area Maintenance Worker
Eligibility Specialist I/II	HQS Inspector
HQS Inspections Manager/Landlord Outreach Coordinator	Maintenance Worker I/II
Office Assistant	Senior General Ledger Clerk
Part-Time Maintenance Worker Palm Valley

As employment applications are received, screening, testing, and/or Oral Board Interviews are conducted in a continuous manner.

Benefits Fair:

Human Resources is currently in the process of contacting various vendors and health agencies in preparation for Stanislaus Regional Housing Authority’s upcoming Employee Benefits Fair, which is anticipated to take place Summer 2022.

Training:

Stanislaus Regional Housing Authority staff has successfully completed the required Sexual Harassment/Discrimination training and staff are in the process of completing the required Fair Housing Training. Human Resources will be scheduling and coordinating the AB1234 (Ethics) training in the coming months for applicable staff members. In addition, Human Resources is in the process of finalizing a Maintenance Training module that will provide regular monthly training courses for staff that will refresh and/or enhance knowledge or expertise in various applicable areas.

Various Maintenance Staff are in the process of preparing for the Water/Wastewater Certification testing, which Human Resources anticipates will be completed in the coming weeks as staff feel confident and prepared to sit for the examination.

PREPARED BY: Dawn Bonsu, Director of Business Operations