

Human Resources continues to actively advertise agency vacancies with various academic, labor-related institutions as well as various organizations within the community in order to augment standard recruitment practices. To assist departments that are experiencing a staffing shortage, Stanislaus Regional Housing Authority has retained temporary staffing assistance from BBSI, Robert Half, and Stanislaus County Workforce Development.

Human Resources continues to receive employment applications and processes candidates who meet the minimum qualifications for the position in which they are applying. Successful applicants are guided through the recruitment process consisting of testing, oral panel interviews, and second interviews. Most recently, two new employees joined the Agency and Human Resources would like to welcome:

- Travis Schultze, Maintenance Worker I/II
- Andre Williams, Maintenance Worker I/II

Below is a list of Stanislaus Regional Housing Authority's remaining vacancies:

Accountant (1 Vacancy)	Area Maintenance Worker (2 Vacancies)	Eligibility Specialist (1 Vacancy)	HQS Inspector (1 Vacancy)
Inspections Manager (1 Vacancy)	Maintenance Worker I/II (1 Vacancy)	Occupancy Clerk (3 Vacancies)	Senior General Ledger Clerk (1 Vacancy)

Oral Panel Interviews and Second Interviews are in the process of being scheduled for qualified candidates for the Maintenance Worker Position, Eligibility Specialist Position and Occupancy Clerk Position.

Open Enrollment for Flex Today is underway for 2023. This is a tax benefit offered on behalf of the agency that allows employees to use pre-tax dollars to pay for eligible medical, dental, vision, and dependent care assistance.

PREPARED BY: Dawn Bonsu, J.D., Director of Human Resources and Business Operations